

Meet Your Instructor

Dr. Brady Lund

Hello everyone!

My name is Dr. Brady Lund. I am an assistant professor here at the University of North Texas in the Department of Information Science. I earned my doctoral degree in information management from Emporia State University in Emporia, Kansas. My primary areas of interest are human-computer interaction and the impact of emerging technologies on culture and society; however, I have an extensive background in a wide variety of areas within library and information science. It is a pleasure to have you in class this semester. Please do not hesitate to reach out to me if you have any questions or encounter any concerns during your time in this class - I am here to help!

You may use the Inbox feature in Canvas to message me or send me an email at Brady.Lund@unt.edu (<mailto:Brady.Lund@unt.edu>). I am happy to meet with you via Zoom, if you send me a message to arrange a meeting time!
